

THE TRANSPORTATION AUTHORITY OF MARIN (TAM) ISSUES A CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR UPCOMING VACANCIES ON ITS TECHNICAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE (TAC)

Applicants are being sought for twelve vacancies on the Transportation Authority of Marin's Technical Advisory Committee (TAC), a group of interested individuals and professionals who will make recommendations to TAM on investment priorities. Specifically, this committee is charged with prioritizing certain investments as described in TAM's Measure A's ½ cent Transportation Sales Tax Expenditure Plan and to undertake other technical reviews as requested by the TAM Board of Commissioners.

The TAC is composed of 13 members and 13 alternates represented by various Marin organizations. Applicants must be nominated by their respective organizations for appointment by TAM's Board of Commissioners. Applicants shall not have an economic interest in any of TAM's projects. Members will be required to comply with the disclosure and conflict of interest requirements of the Political Reform Act of 1974. Twelve of the positions are due to expires on May 31, 2007. The four-year term for these positions begins, therefore, on June 1, 2007.

At this time, TAM is requesting applications for:

- Two members and two alternates from, and nominated by, the Marin Public Works Association
- One member and one alternate from, and nominated by, the Marin County Planning Directors Group
- One member and one alternate from, and nominated by, Marin County Paratransit Coordinating Council
- One member and one alternate from, and nominated by, the Marin County Office of Education
- One member and one alternate from, and nominated by, an advocacy group representing business organizations

All administration of committee activities are done through TAM staff.

Nominated parties may apply in one of the following ways:

- Visit TAM's website at www.tam.ca.gov to download the standard TAM advisory committee application packet
- Contact the TAM office at 415-507-2680 to request an application packet by mail
- Pick up an application packet at TAM's office: 70 San Pablo Avenue in San Rafael

Original signed applications will be accepted for both membership and alternate positions and must be received in TAM's office by 5:00 p.m. on May 10, 2007.

TAM Advisory Committees

Standing Rules and Application and Appointment Procedures

Standing Rules

1. Citizens appointed to the two standing TAM advisory committees, the Citizen Oversight and the Technical Advisory Committee, shall be appointed for a term of four years; however, in order to provide for staggered terms for committee members, at the first meeting of the committee, the members shall draw lots to determine whether their initial appointment term will be 2 or 4 years. All initial appointment terms shall commence on June 1, 2005 and, subject to earlier removal or termination as provided herein, shall expire on May 31, 2007, as to two-year terms and May 31, 2009, as to four-year terms. Thereafter, terms shall commence on June 1 and shall terminate on the fourth anniversary date of such commencement date. If a committee member is unable to complete his or her term, a replacement member will be appointed by the TAM Board to fill the vacancy and complete the appointment term. Members of these advisory committees shall be appointed to their full terms, subject to eligibility provisions contained in Section 104.3 of the TAM Administrative Code.
2. Each committee member also shall have a designated alternate appointed, subject to eligibility provisions contained in Section 104.3 of the TAM Administrative Code, who shall attend committee meetings in the event that the appointed committee member is unable to attend. It shall be the responsibility of the appointed committee member to inform their designated alternate when the appointed committee member is unable to attend a meeting of the committee. The name of each designated alternate shall be on file with TAM.
3. Any special or ad hoc advisory committee so created shall cease to exist upon the accomplishment of the special purpose for which it was created, or when abolished by a majority vote of the TAM Board. The Executive Director shall prepare an annual summary report of special or ad hoc advisory committees and make recommendations to the TAM Board regarding the elimination of committees whose functions or purpose have been fulfilled or where the mandate or purpose for the creation of the committee has expired.
4. Advisory committees that are responsible for conducting public business for TAM are subject to all provisions of the Ralph M. Brown Act, California Government Code Section 54950 et seq. (as amended), which mandates open meetings for local legislative bodies.
5. Advisory committee members are required to comply with disclosure and conflict of interest requirements of the Political Reform Act of 1974, California Government Code Section 81000 et seq. (as amended), and must complete and file all necessary disclosure documents. Committee members shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety and shall not use their appointed position to further their own financial gain or for any other purpose not directly related to the governmental function they have been appointed to perform. Specifically, committee membership shall be restricted to individuals without personal financial interest in any Measure A project. Committee members are defined as "public officials" of TAM (California Government Code Section 82048), and no public official shall make, participate in making, or in any way attempt to use his or her official position to influence a governmental decision in which he or she knows, or has reason to know, he or she has a financial interest (California Government Code Section 87100). Having a financial interest in a decision is defined by California Government Code Section 87103.

6. All appointed advisory committee members, whether new or re-appointed, shall take a loyalty Oath of Office prior to voting on any matter presented to the advisory committee to which they have been appointed to serve.
7. Unless authorized as the designated spokesperson by the advisory committee, an individual member may not represent the advisory committee before any other committee or agency or to the press or general public. Advisory committee members are defined as "officers" of TAM and hence are governed by California Government Code Section 3201 et seq. (as amended) relating to political activities. Specifically, political activities, such as soliciting or receiving funds or contributions for a candidate or ballot measure during committee meetings, are prohibited.
8. Advisory committee members shall be responsible for having a working knowledge of the establishing ordinance, by-laws, federal or state mandates or any other governing regulations that define and set forth the intent and purpose of their appointment and shall only represent and take action on matters related thereto.
9. No advisory committee shall have powers other than advisory to TAM. Standing advisory committees, the Citizens' Oversight Committee and Technical Advisory Committee, shall have adopted by-laws approved by the TAM Board within 90 days of committee formation.
10. Advisory committee members shall not knowingly or otherwise misrepresent the scope of their influence or authority in matters assigned to their committee or represent recommendations of their respective advisory body as official TAM policy until such time as formal action, such as adoption of a resolution, has been taken by the TAM Board.
11. The TAM Board shall retain discretion to rescind any advisory committee appointment(s), as deemed necessary.

Application and Appointment Procedures

1. Notice of application for appointment to standing advisory committees shall be posted on the TAM website and provided to: all TAM Board Commissioners; all city, town, and county clerks for posting; local newspapers; all qualified nominating organizations; and all Marin County library branches. Application notification periods shall be conducted for a minimum of 60 days.
2. In the event that multiple, qualified applications are submitted for a committee membership appointment from identified nominating organizations, the TAM Board may choose to conduct interviews. If selected for an interview, applicants shall be notified of the date, time, and location of the interviews.

3. When a vacancy exists on an advisory committee and no applications have been submitted, the vacancy will be continued until such time as an appointment is made. The TAM Board may, at any time, move to continue an appointment to a subsequent date.
4. New members of advisory committees and members who wish to continue serving in their appointed capacity for an additional term are required to complete and submit a new application or may update and resubmit their original application if no pertinent information has changed. Applications shall be submitted to the TAM Executive Director, and all qualifying applications for the vacancy will be submitted to the TAM Board for consideration, selection, and appointment.
5. The TAM Executive Director shall maintain a public information list of members and designated alternates appointed to TAM Advisory Committees. The list shall include the name of the appointee, the date the term expires, and affiliation and/or nominating organization. The list shall be updated annually on January 1.
